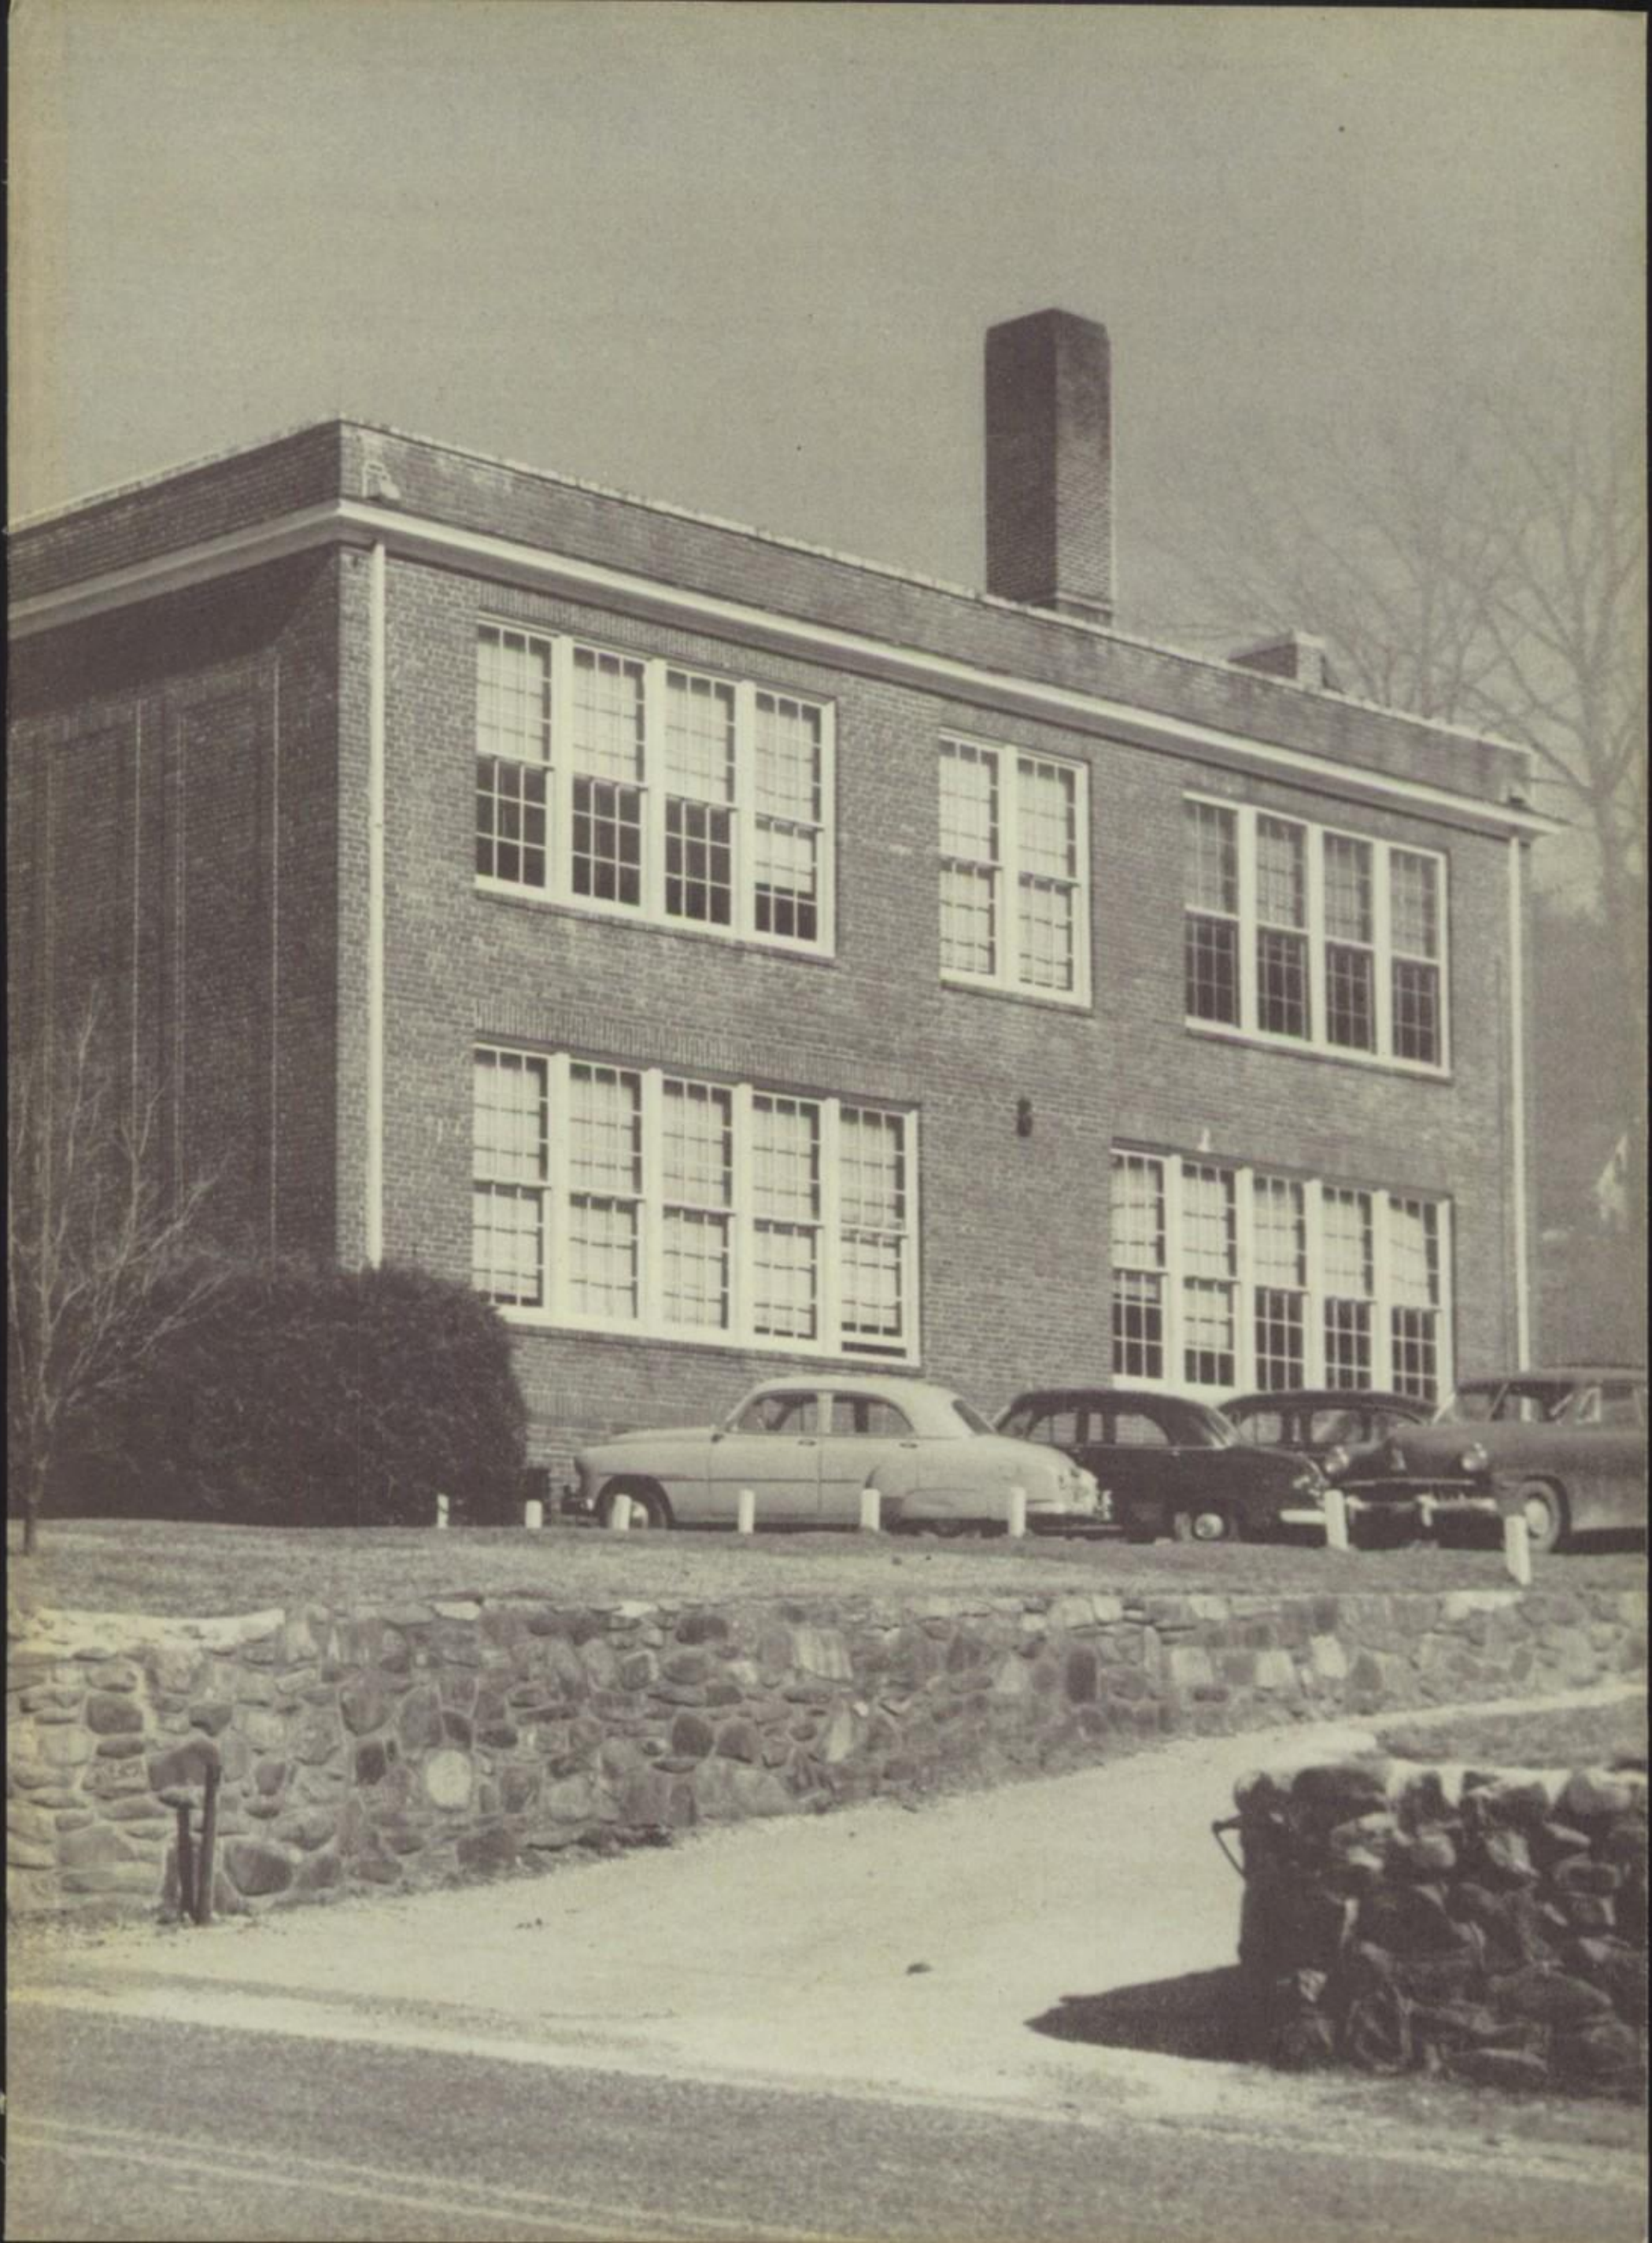
1953-1954



The very best of everything to a wonderful person! I Certainly have enjoied being in your class this year and hope to be in yours next year. Mr. Dwyer you are my favorite teacher and I like you very much. Come to see us sometime. you're always "welcome". See you in class next year.

Love,
Patricia Burton

Lots of Luck to one of the best teachers and friends I've ever had. Here hoping that you are here next year. I hope you have a good summer and get plenty of rest and be ready for next year. Take care of yourself and write me. A friend

Larry Pete

To a wonderful person and teacher. I have enjoyed more than ever being in your Class this year. I hope to be in your Class Next year and the nexth. I hope to see you this Summer. I like you lots and you are a favorite teacher!

Love, a Friend
Annette Cassell

you know you'd the best pal I have. and vice-versa. I don't know what I would have ever done without your guidance and "loving" ear. I'll never have a better teacher or friend than you. Have a good summer and come see and write!!

always your Pal,
Butch

CLASS PROPHECY

It's the gypsy in us that causes us to look ten years into the future and predict these fortunes for members of the class of '54.

Austin Alexander heads a concern which manufactures the newest brand of "moonshine".

Pat Bruner has just finished writing a book entitled "Why Girls Should Not Wear Bluejeans".

Clara Bert Callaham is home on vacation from the State Mental Institution—she's superintendent of nurses there.

Willa Beth Carter is a ballet teacher in one of our Western cities.

Clara Bell Fisher is a Metropolitan Opera singer.

Edith Galloway is under contract with M. G. M.—her next picture is "Freckle-Faced Angel".

Shirley Galloway has just received her promotion to Major in the WACS.

"Sonny" Galloway is an undertaker at the Dead End Mortuary.

Christine Jones, an airline hostess for T. W. A., is now on the line to Florida.

Olivene Jones and her husband are owners of the Bar-L Ranch in Texas.

Mary Jane Jones is married to William Westhimer, a multi-millionaire.

Jimmie Lee is owner and publisher of "The Toxaway Time". Approximately five papers per week are sold.

Tom Mahoney is starring on the sob TV program entitled "View the Remains".

Dan McCall is so popular his picture is posted in many post offices where one can read of his notorious escape from San Quentin. Dan always was a smart boy.

Daniel McCall sponsors a radio program called "How to Eat and Stay Slim".

Jerry McCall, the jet pilot, plans a trip to Alcatraz to visit old schoolmates.

Hazel O'Shields is married to a sailor and is residing in Norfolk, Virginia. She takes care of her twins, "Scotch" and "Soda", and listens to Daniel McCall's program every day.

Bill McKinney is a reporter for the "Know It All" column in the New York "Sun".

Donalee Passmore is teaching bookkeeping at Rosman High and generously distributing demerits.

Edward Paxton is on the national debating team called "I Know Better".

Odell Powell still works at the Dixie Store and delivers groceries in the push cart. (That boy has a head on his shoulders—it's a good thing he has feet, too.)

Betty Jean Powell has converted the former "Strollers Inn" into the fanciest eating place in Brevard.

Perry Fisher now writes a column called "Broken Hearted Males" in one of the leading dailies.

Dora Mae Whitmire is an attractive hat check girl in an expensive New York night club.

Lester Gillespie is still the notorious wolf chasing girls.

Mae Whitmire is a lady wrestler. Her next bout will be with Minnie Muscles at Madison Square Garden.

Clara Dean Parker is a burlesque queen on Broadway.

Frantz Whitmire is at the University of Maine teaching students from all over the world the art of beautiful handwriting.

CLASS HISTORY

I am sitting in my comfortable rocking chair watching TV when a special feature entitled "Memories of the R. H. S. Class of '54" appears on the screen. It is under the direction of Mr. E. F. Tilson, and his assistant advisers for the first scene, which starts in the autumn of 1950, are Mrs. Lucy Bryson and Mr. Ed Williams.

A debate on "Heredity versus Environment" is taking place in a health-class.

Another incident is the "Farewell Party" given for James Galloway who went into the Army.

The end of this first scene was a picnic at the Pink Beds to celebrate the completion of our freshman year. A few had decided the School Script was too hard and had left us.

Scene two opens with our introduction to biology with a new teacher, Mrs. Whittington. Curtis Barton particularly liked to tease our pretty teacher. Too, it was during this scene that while we were on a field trip that a fire broke out in the woods from unidentified sources. However, we were becoming fully aware of the necessity of hard work as well as some play to get us through this year.

The third scene places on us the responsibility of presenting our class play, "Desperate Ambrose", of sponsoring the Junior-Senior Banquet which had as its theme "Southern Plantation." From our group was selected a girl's trio and the boy's quartet, but the event that really provided prestige for us was the measuring for our class rings.

From the sidelines of this third scene, we recall that there were thumb tacks in the chairs of the speakers from Ecusta, and there was a swimming party before school time on that last day of school.

The fourth and most memorable scene of that movie reel rolls before our eyes. Our rings arrive, then our calling cards and invitations come. Throughout the year we work on the school paper, the annual, and raising funds for our trip to Washington, D. C., at Easter. We are measured for our caps and gowns; we enjoy and appreciate a banquet given in our honor by the Juniors. There is the presentation of the Senior Play, "Are You Kidding", the Baccalaureate Sermon, and finally, Graduation, where we hear a roll call of those who shared and completed four wonderful years at Rosman High.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1954, of Rosman High School, in the county of Transylvania, the state of North Carolina, being of sound mind and realizing our impending departure from this school, do hereby declare and make this our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To Mr. Tilson and the teachers we leave our deepest appreciation for their efforts toward increasing our wisdom.

ARTICLE II

To the buildings and buses we leave our deepest sympathy after the care we gave them for the past twelve years.

ARTICLE III

To the Junior Class we leave the job of publishing "The Oriole" and raising funds for a trip to Washington, D. C.

To the Sophomores and Freshmen we leave our hopes that each of them will attain the goal we have now reached.

ARTICLE IV

During our years of school we have accumulated some well-known articles which we would like to bestow upon specific underclassmen. They are as follows:

Austin Alexander leaves his ability to play basketball to Bradley Snipes.

Ed Paxton bequeaths his persistent presence in the office and his love for women to Harold Whitmire.

Shirley Galloway wills her ability to play basketball to Pat Burton.

Pat Bruner leaves her liking to wear blue jeans to Louise Passmore.

Clara Bert Callaham leaves her ability to be quiet and not get demerits to Stella Glazener.

Willa Beth Carter wills her quiet ways to Laverne Smith.

Christine Jones leaves to Shirley Holden and Shirley Jamerson her absenteeism from school.

To Polly Petit, Mae Whitmire bequeaths all of her laughs and cute jokes.

Jerry McCall bequeaths his tobacco chewing to "Butch" Lance.

Dan McCall leaves to Pete Owen his ability to compose poems.

To Junior Holland, Donalee Passmore leaves his ability to stay out of school, provided he will do make-up work when he returns.

Jimmie Lee bequeaths her job as editor of the school paper to Annette Cassell.

To Barbara McCall, Clara Belle Fisher wills her sense of humor.

Betty Jean Powell wills to Margaret Owen her ability to become friends with everyone.

"Sonny" Galloway wills his ability to draw pictures of women and cars to Harold Staton.

Frantz Whitmire leaves all of his "Monkey Shines" to Benny Cassell.

Bill McKinney leaves his shyness to David Butler.

Olivene Jones leaves her ability to blush to Freda Owen.

Mary Jane Jones wills her big smile to Dorothy Whitmire.

Hazel O'Shield leaves her thanks to Mr. Warren for teaching her to be a good bookkeeper.

Dora Mae Whitmire leaves her thanks to Mrs. Hogsed for allowing her to get out of study hall to type the news.

Tom Mahoney wills to Floyd Jones his ability to go fishing on school days.

Daniel McCall wills Katie Brown the ability to tie tin cans on the school bus to play with on the way to school.

Edith Galloway bequeaths to Shirley Winchester her "knack" of getting her fingers hung in typewriters.

Lester Gillespie bequeaths his ability to get along with women to Roy Galloway.

Odell Powell leaves to Joe Ben McCall his ability to sell "dopes" at the basketball games.

Perry Fisher leaves his good looks to Larry Patterson.

ARTICLE V

The Senior Class wills to any worthy class the privilege of sitting at their back table in the lunchroom. We seniors learned many interesting things while eating our lunches at that particular table.

To one of my "best" teachers. Ms. Dwyer, I really have enjoyed being in your classes all through high school. You are a good teacher and a wonderful person. I really have had a lot of fun in your classes "teasing" everyone. I hope I'm in your classes until I graduate. I hope I can continue being your friend and also Mrs Dwyer's because I think she is a wonderful person too. Love a student, & a friend, Shirley Winchester (Lover girl Ha)

Mr. Dwyer,
I have enjoyed being in class as one of your students for the past three years. You have been the nicest teacher that I've ever had. I wish you success with yet, may you keep up the good teaching. Remember the time when we went to "Christ School"? I had more fun than I've ever had before. May you have everything that you can imagine of in the future.

Lionel Owen
Soph. "53754"

Mr. Dwyer,
You are One of the nicest teachers of the Roxman High. In fact I think you are one of the very best that has ever set foot inside of any class Room. When you took us to Christ School, well I had a very nice time. I have enjoyed being in your class very vlas. But I like it better this vlas, when I got to be in your class first and seven period. I hope that you will get that Cadallac and everything else that you have wished for. May the Best of every thing turn out the way you want it to.

a friend,
J. J. Petit

Mr. Dwyer:
You have been a very nice teacher in the 3 years I have been in high school. May you prosper and live to be 120.

Frank Mahoney

Mr. Dwyer,
you are one of my best teachers. I will always remember you as a friend and a real nice teacher. Good Luck always, "Love",
